“TRAVEL” with TORONTO GT’S

“High Arctic Expedition”

by Kathy Burnie

But why, Kathy? “Flew into Kangerlussuaq in Greenland then cruised up the west coast to Qilakitsoq, stopping at four towns along the way. Then sailed over to Pond Inlet in Canada and proceeded south to visit various areas including Devon Island, Crocker Bay, Beechy Island, Cape Burney and along the east coast of Baffin Island. We ended at Lady Franklin Island near the south end of Baffin Island – then sailed back to Greenland and home. Saw hundreds of huge icebergs coming from Greenland glacier. Saw polar bears, muskox, walruses, whales and two nights of gorgeous northern lights. Fascinating!”
